Take a break from your machine and try something new! Kinusaiga is a Japanese art form that creates mosaic-like pictures by pressing fabric scraps into pre-cut grooves on a foam board, requiring no sewing or glue. Often called "no-sew quilting" or "painting with cloth," we are going to use up a lot of your scrap fabric to build a beautiful picture you can proudly display or hang. Think stained glass but for cloth!

Fabric Requirements:

- A bunch of fabric scraps of varying colors and sizes (depending on which pattern you choose).

Class Supply List:

- Class kit (Foam board (12"x16", Exacto knife, Printed pattern on adhesive sheets (if selecting your own pattern, you will need to email it to me in advance!)
- Seam ripper
- Fabric scissors
- Pattern (can select from pictures or find your own - some patterns may cost between $2-10!)

Please note: We will be working very closely with sharp instruments in this class. It may help to bring a pair of work/gardening gloves to avoid cutting yourself.
